3. [Redacted], DDS 7-D-18 Headquarters Bldg.				2. As we recall, proposed Regulation No. 20 established a requirement that Agency heads sign correspondence to the Joint Committee on Printing. 3. Please let us know your recommendations for handling, noting that the Committee would like a response no later than 1 February 1971. 2 to 4: Per our telephone discussion 21 January, suggest we handle this as in the past. This is a general circularization that goes out whenever the Government Printing and Binding Regulations are being considered for revision. The regulation you mention also permits "...an official designated by" the Agency head to sign correspondence to the Joint Committee on Printing. I feel that the signature of the D/L is entirely appropriate for the attached. As I mentioned, we do not consider this Agency to be bound by these regulations, although we do not deviate from them promiscuously. We try to keep the Staff Director informed in general concerning our equipment, facilities and operations; we serve on the Electronics Subcommittee; and we attend social and professional functions when invited.

Since creation of this Division in the Office of Logistics, we have enjoyed an excellent relationship with Jack Haley and his predecessor, Jim Harrison, and I am confident that it will continue in this vein.

Mr. John F. Haley
Staff Director
Joint Committee on Printing
United States Senate Post Office
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Mr. Haley:

Thank you for your letter of January 15, 1971 and your invitation to comment upon the proofs of "Government Printing & Binding Regulations," No. 21.

While we have no suggestions for improvement of the regulations we do appreciate your courtesy in referring them to us for review.

Sincerely,

John F. Blake
Director of Logistics
